

Pavillon Counselor Recognized for Excellence in the Field of Substance Abuse Treatment

Mill Spring – May 13, 2010 Long-time member of the men’s clinical team, Levi Gardner has been awarded the Ray Von Beatty Graduate Counselor Education Leadership Award. The honor recognizes exemplary leadership in the area of counselor performance.

Levi graduates Magna Cum Laude this week from Lenoir-Rhyne University with a Masters of Arts in agency counseling. He will be recognized for his leadership and academic achievements at Lenoir-Rhyne in the field of substance abuse treatment.

Levi is a certified substance abuse counselor with 25 years experience in the field. He has been with Pavillon since 2008.

“I know I speak for the staff and our many alumni who are tremendously proud of the work Levi has done professionally and academically over the years,” said Anne Vance, CEO. “He remains a strong asset to Pavillon’s extraordinary clinical team.”
