The Episcopal Diocese of Western North Carolina
Recovery Day -2012
“De-Mystifying Alcoholism/Addiction”
October 5, 2012 – 8:00am – 4:00pm
Deerfield Episcopal Retirement Community
1617 Hendersonville Road
Asheville, North Carolina 28803

Registration – 8:00 am

Workshops:
• Bishop Porter Taylor
• Patsy A., Al-Anon, Dick S. Open AA Meeting Demonstration
• J. Paul Martin MD, Addictionologist and Jeff Gillease LPC/LCAS Interventionist “Best Practices in Treating Substance Use Disorders”
• Lunch in the Bistro
• Keynote Speaker; Very Rev. Ward B. Ewing, DD
• Christopher B, a personal story of Experience Strength and Hope
• Panel Discussion

Who should attend:
Priests, Deacons, Congregational Leaders and parishioners impacted by addiction. Also open to Deerfield Residents, Mental Health and Health Care workers and those interested in learning about addiction.

Each attendee will receive a valuable recovery "Tool Kit"

Cost: $25.00 per person; Deerfield Residents no charge -contact Rev. Tom Rightmyer: trightmy@juno.com, or (828) 225-0515

CEU’s: For the medical piece…2.0 training credits/hours approved by NAADAC and provided by Pavillon, provider #360.

Sponsors welcome at $100.00 per display. For More Information: Contact Dale Llewelyn at 828-243-2832 or <dalern@bellsouth.net>

Space is limited, registration required by September 28th

To Register on line visit: bit.ly/recoverywnc or by phone: Phone: (828) 225-6656