

Congratulations!

Paul Hackman has recently been elected to the Board of NAATP – National Association of Addiction Treatment Providers. NAATP is an organization for providers of addiction treatment who are comprised of private inpatient, outpatient and publicly funded organizations.

Representing 650 addiction treatment providers, NAATP provides leadership, advocacy training and other support services to assure availability and the highest quality of treatment programs.