

2020 New Mexico Spiritual Quest

Alumni Trip to Taos & Santa Fe, NM Early Spring, 2020

A message from Lesley

I hope this note finds you all happy, healthy and well. Last year a group of Pavillon alumni, family and friends went to Machu Picchu, Peru. We had such an incredible experience we decided to take another trip. I would love it if you would consider joining us. Just like me, the trip is still a work in progress but generally speaking it will look something like this:

- 1 week experience in the beautiful lands surrounding Taos and Santa Fe, New Mexico sometime in April/May of 2020
- We will embark upon our own spiritual journey while wholly incorporating the “we” of life. We will embrace the natural elements of fire, water, earth and air.
- There are 23 Native American tribes in NM: 19 Pueblos, 3 Apache tribes and the Navajo Nation. We will incorporate aspects of the 23 tribes into our quest, taking us on a personal journey where we will look to more deeply penetrate our life's intent
- We will incorporate a sweat lodge, traditional fire ceremony, artistry, architecture, and for the thrill seekers among us: a desert trek that will most assuredly force us to rely even deeper upon our Higher Power.
- There will be different options from which you can choose. I know not everyone is interested in pushing their body to the limits with a desert “walkabout” so alternative options will be provided which will focus on the cultural and social aspects of the Southwest tribes.
- Approximately $3000 (includes lodging, meals and program options)

My hope is that you will help me become “we.” Together, we will venture outside of our personal comfort zone with the ultimate goal of learning more about ourselves, why we are here, and how we are destined to contribute to our greater good. Are you in?

*Peace and grace,
Lesley*
